

Dear Sir (s),

Multi-Product Business Delegation to Cuba and Panama
(October 29, 2017-November 2, 2017)

The delegation will be led by Hon'ble Commerce and Industry Minister, Govt. of India

We are pleased to inform you that in order to boost India's exports to the Latin American Region, FIEO with the support of Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Govt. of India is mounting a Multi-Product Business Delegation to Cuba and Panama of select Indian Companies from October 29, 2017 to November 2, 2017. The objective of the delegation is to showcase quality Indian products and services to the prospective buyers with the overall objective to enhance India's exports through Focused B2B Meets. The delegation will be led by Hon'ble Commerce and Industry Minister, Govt. of India.

The focused sectors will be Auto-parts, Chemicals, Textiles, Pharmaceuticals, Plastics, Hand-tools, Food, Engineering, Building Material and related products, Leather made products, Services including Tourism and Logistics etc.

India-Cuba relations have been traditionally warm and friendly. Both countries have maintained close contacts with each other in various international fora, such as the UN, NAM, WTO, etc. During the visit of Shri Hamid Ansari, Hon'ble Vice president of India in October, 2013, the relations were upgraded to Special Strategic Partnership as a result there is an inclination of Cuba Importers to increase imports from India and explore investments. Trade between India and Cuba stood at USD 43.18 Million in 2016-17.

Panama has historically served as the crossroads of trade for the Americas. Its strategic location as a bridge between two oceans and the meeting of two continents has made Panama not only a maritime and air transport hub, but also an international trading, banking, and services center. Panama's is also enhancing its global and regional prominence through trade liberalization and privatization and it is participating actively in the hemispheric movement toward free trade agreements. Trade between India and Panama stood at USD 423.85 Million in 2016-17.

The visit of the delegation is coinciding with the India Participation in FIHAV-35th Havana International Fair scheduled from 30 October, 2017 – 3 November, 2017 at Havana, Cuba. The participation in the fair is being organized by ITPO and FIEO Jointly and likely to be inaugurated by Hon'ble Commerce and Industry Minister, Govt. of India.
